

History of Latin America
Prof. Dra. Liria Evangelista
Program in Argentine and Latin American Studies
Universidad de Belgrano
Programa del curso 2010 / Course Syllabus 2010

Course Information

Comisión 1: lunes 13-15 hs (M 1-3 PM)
Comisión 2: miércoles 13-15 hs (W 1-3 PM)
Instruction in: English

Contact Information

Liriaevangelista@hotmail.com

Course Description

This course informs about the formation and evolution of the societies in Latin America with a focus in Argentina. Using a comparative approach, the course begins with the wars of independence and goes on to tell the story of the complex ethnic and cultural components that impacted in the formation of the Latin American societies. The course will discuss the emergence of the Masses in the Twentieth Century, and their key role as political actors in the Mexican, the "Peronist" and the Cuban revolutions. The course also reflects on the responsibility of the Military Junta in State Terrorism and the complex process of historical and cultural memory in Uruguay, Chile and Argentina

Course Requirements

Students are expected to do close readings, participate in class, and do an oral presentations in pairs. The requirements also include a midterm and a final exam. In addition to this, each student will be expected to make a significant contribution to the classroom dialogue. A 75% Attendance to classes is mandatory to keep the regular student status. An electronic system keeps track of attendance. Students have to slide an electronic card every class to comply with attendance policy.

Grading Policy

Class participation and attendance: 10%
Oral Presentation: 20%
Mid-Term Exam: 30%
Final Written Exam: 40%

For a better understanding of the comparable table for grading: check the student handbook (page 9) in orientation kit packet.

Required Textbooks and Materials

Liria Evangelista, ed. Course Reader.

Academic Calendar

Week 1

Presentation of the course- The crises of the Spanish Empire

Week 2

Revolution and Independence Wars. The case of Brazil.

Mandatory readings:

- a) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire. (63-118)
- b) Hillman, Richard. Understanding Contemporary Latin America. (27-49)
- c) Luna, Félix. A Short History of the Argentinians. (13-64)

Week 3

The formation of the New Republics: 1820-1870

Civil Wars: 1820-1860 – Towards the new national states. Social and Political agents. Argentina: unitarios and federales. Thinking the future Nation. Intellectuals and politics (The Generation of 1837)- Ideological and cultural matrix: civilization or barbarism.

Mandatory readings:

- a) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire. (119-148)
- b) Halperín Donghi, Tulio. Sarmiento, Author of a Nation. (114-123)
- c) Luna, Félix. A Short History of the Argentinians.(64-86)

Week 4

The new republics: national unification and state building. Political and social antagonisms. Social subjects and nation.

Mandatory readings:

- a) Luna, Félix. A Short History of the Argentinians.(86-110)
- d) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire. (149-178)

Week 5

Neocolonial order: 1870-1910 – Immigration, europeization, modernization.

Mandatory readings :

- a) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire. (179-211)
- b) Luna, Félix. A Short History of the Argentinians.(111-126)

Week 6

The Mexican Revolution- Argentina and the crises of integration: Sáenz Peña Law- Towards Latin American Democratization.

Mandatory Readings:

- a) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire. (same chapter-focus on Mexico)
- b) Luna, Félix. A Short History of the Argentinians. (127-139)
- c) <http://www.latinamericanstudies.org/mex-revolution.htm>

Week 7

Crises and Transformation: (1914-1945) Nationalisms. Introduction to Latin American Populism.

Mandatory Readings:

- a) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire.(213-243)
- b) Luna, Félix. A Short History of the Argentinians.(140-166)

Week 8

The "first peronism": 1945. The populist state: social, political and cultural characteristics. Eva Perón's role.

Mandatory readings:

- a) Luna, Félix. A Short History of the Argentinians. (167-223)
- b) Fraser, Nicholas and Navarro, Marysa. Eva Perón. (102-167)

Week 9

Latin America during the Cold Wars- The 1960's: the era of revolutions.

Mandatory Reading :

- a) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire (245-305)

Week 10

National Security Doctrine. Dictatorship in the Southern Cone. Disappearances and state terrorism- Argentina: the Malvinas War- Human Rights Organizations and Democratic Transitions.

Mandatory Reading

- a) Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire (306-321)
- b) Guzmán Bouvard, Marguerite. Revolutionizing Motherhood. The Mothers of Plaza de Mayo. (1-62)

Week 11

Midterm Exam

Week 12

(Cont.) Debate on historical memory.

Week 13

Democratic Transitions in the Southern Cone – Revolution in Nicaragua- El Salvador: civil wars.

Week 14

The 1990's and globalization – The crises of 2001 in Argentina - Conclusions

Week 15

Final Written Exam

Required Bibliography

Felix Luna, Brief History of Argentina
John Ch. Chasteen, Born in Blood and Fire

Suggested Bibliography

Thomas Skidmore and Peter Smith, A Contemporary History of Latin America

(UB Library 042989/ 90)

Booklet 1

- Richard Hillman, Understanding Latin America, Chapter 3
- John Charles Chasteen and Joseph S. Tulchin (eds.), Problems in Modern Latin American History: A Reader, Chapters 3, 4, 9
- Bradford Burns, Latin America: Conflict and Creation, Chapters 2, 4, 5, 6, 7
- Bradford Burns, The Poverty of Progress, Chapters 1, 2, 5, 6, 7
- Leslie Bethell, Ideas and Ideologies in Latin America, Chapters 2

Booklet 2

- Joseph Tulchin, Argentina and the United States: A Conflicted Relationship, Chapters 2, 4, 5, 6, 7
- Robert Levine, The Vargas Regime, Chapters 1-5
- Jules Benjamin, The U. S. and the Origins of the Cuban Revolution, Chapters 2-9

Booklet 3

- Walter LaFeber, Inevitable Revolutions, Chapters 1, 3, 4, 5
- Stephen Rabe, Eisenhower and Latin America, Chapters 1, 2, 3, 7, 9
- Lester D. Langley, America and the Americas: The United States in the Western Hemisphere, Chapters 2-9

National Holidays

The class missed on Week 3 (March 24) due to a national holiday will be made up on Friday March 26.