

Global Learning Semesters

Course Syllabus

Course: TRVL-460 Special Topics in Tourism

Department: Hospitality and Tourism

Host Institution: University of Nicosia, Nicosia, Cyprus

Course Summary
Course Code	Course Title	Recommended Credit Hours
TRVL-460	Special Topics in Tourism	3
Semester Offered	Contact Hours	Prerequisites
Fall	42	Senior
Department	Level of Course	Language of Instruction
Hospitality and Tourism	Upper Division	English

Course Description

In consultation with the tutor the student will: identify a specific topic related to the industry, define an area for investigation, set an agenda for the research and data processing, work within given deadlines, and present the findings in a formal format. The course emphasizes the analysis of existing problems in the tourism industry and guides the students to develop effective recommendations for possible solutions. Specific areas covered are: tourism trends, environmental issues, planning issues, management policies, technology and others that may be of interest to the students.

Instructor

Dr. Anastasios Zopiatis

Course Aims and Objectives

This course builds on the work that the student has completed so far, allowing the further investigation of topics that are of special interest in the tourism industry.

Teaching Methods

The course is delivered through tutoring as an independent study.

Course Teaching Hours

42 hours (tutoring). The course is delivered during the Fall semester over a 14-week period (3 hours / week).

Evaluation and Grading

Class Participation: 10%
Proposal: 20%
Preliminary Report: 30%

Final Report: 40%

Readings and Resources

Required Textbook

Existing relevant to the topic literature.

Recommended Reading

Existing relevant to the topic literature